COUNTY FAIR OPENS FRIDAY

HEART OF THE EL DORADO COUNTY FAIR, which will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Marcus P. Bennett, Jr., Memorial Park, is in this huge exhibit tent over which we have imposed pictures of the men who have supervised the preparation of the fair. The inset photos are, top row, center, Mayor George E. Faugstad, chairman of the Board of Directors; right, Dr. Lester B. Rantz, vice-chairman; left, Arnold N. Weber, finance chairman. Bottom row, left to right, Earl Chesmore, A. C. Winkelman, C. S. Collins, M. E. Raber and Willard Wilkinson, all members of the directorate. P. ## HUGH TENT IS FILLED WITH MANY VARIED DISPLAYS

Three-Day Exposition Concludes On Sunday Evening With Distribution Of Pears And Apples To Purchasers Of Two Admission Tickets After 4 O'Clock

El Dorado County's Fair opens Friday morning at Marcus P. Bennett, Jr., Memorial Park, to continue for three days, closing Sunday, and today there is a hurry and rush at the main exhibit tent as the principal exhibits are going in. It must, inevitably, be this way, for it would have been impossible to complete the exhibits earlier and have them present a neat, newly-made and attractive appearance.

Reference to the program, printed elsewhere in these columns, will show the principal events of each day of the fair. Friday is "Placerville Day," Saturday is "El Dorado County Day," and Sunday is "American Legion Day."

Offering a total of $30,000 in premiums to exhibitors, the fair is housed in a mammoth tent, one hundred feet wide by one hundred eighty-seven feet long, every available foot of which will be crammed with El Dorado County manufactures and produce.

CCC Display At County Fair

Snowline And Mosquito Camps To Show Varied Activities Of Young Men Enrolled

One of the exhibits of striking interest at the county fair will be the display of El Dorado County's two CCC camps, Snowline and Mosquito.

The work and educational activities of the CCC will be portrayed by a two reel motion picture "We Can Take It" and cinematographs taken of Company 999, Camp Snowline, at work, play, and study.

The background of the showing will be an educational progress chart which will be flanked by pictures of the work of the two companies and their camps, which are ranked with the foremost in the country.

Majestically colored (by nature) branches of leaves of the many common trees of El Dorado National Forest will be another feature of the exhibit.

Wood shop work of the enrollees of Camp Mosquito will be an important portion of the educational work displayed.

Captain Don M. Hoffman of Camp Snowline, Captain Joseph Harbeson of Camp Mosquito and Educational Adviser, Lloyd L. Vye of Camp Snowline, are the committee responsible for the CCC exhibition.

Philippines Topic For Talk Before C. E.

Last Sunday night the high school age Christian Endeavor Society of the Federated church had as their guest speaker Paul Dunlop of Diamond Springs. In response to a series of "man on the street" interrogations by Richard Walter, Paul told of his experiences in the Philippine Islands and of how the work of the church and Christian Endeavor is carried on there. Fifteen of the local Endeavorers then accompanied their guest speaker to El Dorado to visit the Christian Endeavor Society which meets there at 7:30 o'clock.

Armistice Day exercises will be held in Placerville on Thursday, November 11, combining the annual program with the dedication of the Junior Community Hall, lately completed under the sponsorship of El Dorado Post No. 119, American Legion, on the city lot on Benham Street.

The program, customarily held at a centrally located site in the business district, will be held at the Junior Community Hall and will have as the speaker of the day Senator A. L. Pierovich of Jackson.

The public is invited to join with the war veterans in the exercises, and also to join with them in attending Armistice Day religious services which will be held at the Federated church on Sunday morning, November 7. ## Stock Show To Be Saturday

Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Goats And Poultry Will Be Judged At County Fair

The Saturday livestock show at the El Dorado County Fair will be one of the major attractions creating county-wide interest.

Under the direction of F. Norman Celio, of the fair board, an extensive display of cattle, sheep, swine, goats and poultry has been outlined. While there will be many adult exhibitors, the show will have as an added feature the participation by various 4-H club boys and girls of the county.

The poultry feature has been arranged by Mrs. Edyth Baalke of Smith Flat, assisted by the Smith Flat school.

The trucks of livestock exhibitors will enter the fair grounds by the Coloma Street entrance and will be parked under supervision for the duration of the livestock show on the main fair grounds.

Seniors Await Curtain Call

Annual Class Play Will Be Given Wednesday Evening At School Auditorium

Members of the Senior Class at the high school, achieving near perfection in their parts, are awaiting the curtain call for the presentation of their annual class play, on next Wednesday evening, November 10, at the school auditorium.

It is a comedy in three acts by Chas. Q. Burdette, titled "New Fires," and a carefully selected cast of fifteen directed by Thomas Flynn is adequately prepared to give the presentation all of the zest and sparkle that the author intended.

Briefly, it is a tale of an author with a family whose members have never learned the meaning of "work" and of their subsequent "education."

Special sets and lighting equipment are being arranged under the supervision of Mrs. C. Belle Swansborough and H. N. T. Schultz.

The fifteen in the cast are Marilyn Ruple, Ruth Hughes, Darryl Proulx, Albert Frey, Bill Flynn, Ted Mason, Dorothy Oates, Ruth Annette Swift, Barbara Smith, Eloise Todd, Loren Dahl, Vernon Emmerson, Noreen Bonillo, Jane Tremayne and Alice Hutchinson.

JUDITH MARY ZURFLUH IS STRICKEN ON THURSDAY

Miss Judith Mary Zurfluh, a native of the district near Greenwood and throughout her entire life a resident of her native county, passed away early Thursday at a Placerville hospital.

Following a prolonged period of failing health, she was operated upon Tuesday but her condition was such that despite the utmost care and attention she was unable to make recovery.

The funeral services will be Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock from St. Patrick's Catholic church, Rev. Father T. J. Hayes officiating. Burial will be at the Catholic cemetery.

Miss Zurfluh is survived by two brothers, George R. and Thomas W. Zurfluh, one uncle and five nieces and nephews. Her many lifelong friends will share with the family the sorrow of her bereavement, the loss of an esteemed and beloved sister and neighbor.

The body is in the care of Memory Chapel.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL LAUNCHED

Chapter Hopes Members Will Renew Cards At Fair Booth, Eliminate Solicitation

El Dorado County Red Cross Chapter opens its annual Roll Call on Friday and will have a booth at the county fair at which it is hoped all members and friends will enroll.

It is hoped that in this manner the chapter's quota may be achieved during the three days of the fair and that the work of a house to house solicitation may thus be avoided.

Placerville Grammar school is first to achieve a 100 per cent enrollment for 1937, according to M. T. Kelly, chapter chairman.

Mr. Kelly is being assisted in the 1937 Roll Call by Mrs. Edwin F. Smith, chapter secretary; and Mrs. Edith Rantz, Mrs. Ruby Allen and Guy E. Wentworth, chapter treasurer.

The co-operation of all in making the 1937 enrollment a success is invited. Call at the Red Cross booth at the County Fair.

Horse Show On Sunday

Excellent Program Developed By Euell Gray; Legion Bodies Will Add Color To Event

The horse show at the El Dorado County Fair will be held Sunday afternoon with an excellent program arranged by Euell Y. Gray assisted by W. E. Bowman.

Master of ceremonies for the show will be Tevis Payne, who for years has managed the state fair horse show, and the presence of bands, drum corps and other uniformed bodies of the American Legion will add color to the program.

Horses which are entered for judging only, and are not entered in competitive events, will be judged Sunday morning. Awards in these classes will be presented during the afternoon show.

The show opens at one o'clock with the appearance of the drum and bugle corps of the American Legion post at Lodi following which F. Norman Celio, director of the livestock displays, will speak briefly over a public address system.

Competitive events will then be staged, interspersed with special entertainment by the American Legion uniformed bodies and with an appearance by Ed and Tillie Bowman in their trick and fancy riding and roping act.

There will be novelty events in the horse show program including a packing outfit contest and musical chairs.

200,000 Children Saw Coast Loop Games

LOS ANGELES (AP)—More than 200,000 boys and girls attended Pacific Coast League baseball games during 1937, president W. O. Tuttle said today. The figure, an increase of 21,000 over 1936, does not include attendance at championship playoffs. San Francisco Seals were credited with 26 per cent of the total.

This &amp; That

By The Tattletale

We listened to a speech last night that should have been heard by many more people than it did for it was on our favorite topic—peace, and ways of attaining peace. The speaker, Mr. Burkhardt, had countless illustrations of how to instill peaceful attitudes in children. On one point only did we disagree and that we believe important enough to bring to your attention. "One thing that must be done," said the speaker, "is to instill in the minds of children more of a nationalistic spirit because it is more fashionable now than is 'internationalism' and also because, after all, the United States is the only country we can count on." Now please do not misunderstand—give us a chance to finish! We do not say that we do not love our country—rather do we say most emphatically that we love our country because of the democratic spirit that prevails, not because of any nationalistic spirit. We love our country, yes—but we love the heart and mind of our country more because of its insistence on the rights of the people—hence, let us look with favor on any country that encourages democracy and not bind ourselves to one sphere. After all, America is not in a world apart—we are not self-sufficient nor are we likely to be. The world grows smaller with every passing day. The Spanish crisis has shown without a doubt that war is never local or national in scope—it is world wide. And if we are to encourage a national spirit only because it is the FASHIONABLE thing to do, we want none of it. If the teacher of Gallile meant to limit your love for mankind to one continent or nation, we want to know about it—or maybe he isn't fashionable nowadays. In brief, let us instill more of the democratic spirit in children.

The above subject naturally brings up the Spanish situation for comment for it has long been on our minds to do so. What will happen to that former world power—that present land of blood and doom? Will Great Britain go over to the Rebels as several writers have predicted or will she continue to maintain her fanatical non-intervention committee? Will the Republic successfully defend itself or is it on its last legs? Let us waste no words as to where we stand on the matter—the only place a believer in democracy COULD stand—with the elected government. Let us some facts: In 1936 the Spanish Republic was established by the people and its constitution opened the way for the establishment of rights that we have enjoyed here for two hundred years. Several reforms were set up, among them being the separation of church and state, setting up a public school system, an agriculture resettlement plan, and a reform of the army. This last is important—in 1930 the Spanish Army had one officer for every six men, one general for every 150; all this consumed thirty per cent of the national budget. For every three dollars spent on materials, equipment, and the rank and file, ten dollars was spent on officers' pay! Naturally, the "reformed army officers" felt more than hurt so they proceeded to do something about it. They were aided by the ex-king financially, the feudal church, and disgruntled landlords. What the outcome will be no one knows—the outlook for the Republic at the present is very dark. Britain, as we said in a previous column, is willing to do anything for peace, at least until her navy is rebuilt; hence she may side with Franco if she sees that he is willing. The non-intervention committee is merely a stall to see who is the strongest. America will undoubtedly keep out of it as she has done in the past but there is a great chance of Russia becoming more involved in spite of the trouble on her eastern border. In any case, the war will drag on for many months to come.

Miss Julia B. Hobday, secretary to the publishers of The Oregon Journal, at Portland, Oregon, was in Placerville Wednesday and called on Mrs. Verna Brame at the Hangtown Antique Shop as a part of her vacation tour along the Mother Lode.

Development Within City Limits Illustration Of Return Of Industry To Importance In County; Property Being Improved Preparatory To Sinking Shaft

The story about golden Bartlett's succeeding gold nuggets in El Dorado County is told with a new variation in developments now under way at the orchard property of Alexis Revaz, in Upper Placerville, and well within the city limits.

sisting of the roll call of departed comrades, the sounding of "Taps" and the unfurling of Old Glory will be followed by dedication of the Junior Community Hall by William Hays, president of Placerville Lions Club, and the response by Virgil Simpson, president of Placerville Twenty-Third Club.

Following the address by State Senator Pierovich, Rev. Harold Morehouse will speak the benediction.

The American Legion is especially anxious that as many children as possible take part in the parade and attend the dedication.

The auxiliary unit will have a float in the parade dedicated to the Gold Star Mothers.

Following the exercises, there will be the usual open house for veterans at the Memorial Building and during the afternoon the American Legion will play the Placerville Lions at soft ball at Marcus P. Bennett Jr., Memorial Park. There will be no admission charge.

The Armistice Day dance will be held in the evening (Thursday evening) at the I. O. O. F. Hall. This affair is under the direction of a committee of which Cecil Barker is chairman and an unusually fine time is promised.

operators that it has been taken over under a lease for mining purposes by H. E. Wilcox, of Salt Lake City, and D. K. Gibbs, of Fresno.

With a shaft down approximately twenty feet, the operators have erected a headframe and are preparing to install a hoist and twenty-ton mill in anticipation of a successful development.

Now in the third week of operation, the operators have four men in their employ and among them is Alexis Revaz, Jr., to whom credit for the development which resulted in the leasing and start of operations is given.

Neither the father nor the son intended to take any credit from the other as to who actually discovered gold on the property, and Mr. Wilcox explained that the area had been hydrofracked in the early days but that the source of the gold found had never been located.

During the past two or three years, whenever other ranch work would permit, Mr. Revaz, Sr., and his son have been prospecting the property and they report they have been well repaid for the amount of time they have spent at the work.

The gold is in quartz formation with some free gold and a number of crystals have been found. This, says Mr.

Revaz, is unusual and is "a good sign."

Mr. Wilcox reports a Diesel operated hoist and a Diesel operated mill will be installed. The showing of the property thus far is encouraging, he reports, and with the completion of the headframe sinking will be continued with the expectation that the mine will become a steady producer.

Follow The Signs To Reach County Fair Grounds

Getting to the El Dorado County Fair and finding a convenient parking place will be no problem at all for those motorists who will follow the signs and the instructions of special officers assigned to handling traffic.

Those "rugged individualists" who choose another course will be likely to find inconvenience and perhaps a traffic citation.

Signs guiding motorists to the fair parking area lead up Canal Street and also out Bee Street. Traffic will proceed one way up Canal and also out Bee Street. Traffic will proceed one way up Acacia Avenue to a five-acre parking area. It is a free parking area and just a few steps from the fair exhibits.

Attendants will be in charge to supervise the parking.

On leaving the parking area, motorists will drive out the Coloma Street entrance to the county park.

The trucks of livestock exhibitors, on Saturday and Sunday, will enter the fair grounds via the Coloma street entrance.

Delivery trucks for the carnival will go to the main entrance to the park on Canal Street.

Delivery trucks for the fair will enter by way of Acacia street to the parking area and it is requested that all deliveries of supplies to the fair be completed before ten o'clock in the morning.
